

Ruin Me Lyrics

I'm coming home
They said I had too much
Of something I don't know
But I can't turn it off

I can't let go
The only thought that's in my head is
"I know it's so wrong
But I wanna go back"

I know it ain't right
I should take my time
But I love those eyes
That you give me when you tell me lies

I'm losing my mind
But I can't deny
That I'm getting high
Every time you kick me in my spine

I'm gonna let you ruin me tonight
I'm gonna let you bring me down
[x2]

]

I'm getting up
Take another sip
Of what's bringing me to you
I know that I should better quit

I'm going out
Heading straight to you
I'm craving for your love
Your love for being so rude

I know it ain't right
I should take my time
But I love your smile
That you give me when I'm about to cry

[Chorus]

I know it ain't right
I should take my time [x2]

[Chorus]

...bring, bring, bring me down
